This type of life insurance is level-term insurance with the added and unique benefit that when you keep it for the full term, you get all your premiums back—tax-free! This is a great way to buy life insurance to help protect the mortgage, plus get back a nice check at the end of the policy term, just in time for retirement or other family needs!

Talk to your RiverBank Insurance Center agent about our Mortgage Life Insurance or the variety of other insurance options that fit your lifestyle.

* In the event of death, our mortgage life insurance will pay your designated beneficiary up to a specified amount.
